PROGRAMMING SUBJECT TO CHANGE

Knighting Ceremony – Come meet King Henry II and Queen Eleanor as they bestow knighting to boys and girls who have been deemed worthy of this honour for their outstanding deeds and talents.

Knights of Valour – What was it like to be a knight? Speak to the knights between tournaments and admire their noble steeds. Knights will challenge each other to a heavy and light armoured jousting tournament each day.

Birds of Prey – The Canadian Raptor Conservancy specializes in birds of prey, such as eagles, falcons, hawks, owls and kestrels. Each demonstration includes five different raptors from around the world, including some free-flying birds.

Viking Encampment – Swordfighting and combat demonstrations, interactive ancient games, try on their armour.

Ottawa Medieval Sword Guild – Spontaneous light armour fight demonstrations.

NEW Camel Rides – Now you can catch a ride on a camel's back (in the back field)! Up to two people per ride – extra fee applies. Camels will break from giving rides during the jousting shows.

Artisan and Craft Booths – Demonstrations will be ongoing at a variety of locations, including archery, maille, candle making and more.

Wandering Entertainment – Watch for wandering circus-style acts (including tricks such as juggling, unicycle jousting, Diabolo, rollo-bollo, fire eating, machete ladder), plus strolling musicians, knight and slave, the pickle man and other Medieval characters!

Weapons of War Demonstrations – See a life-size trebuchet in action, and NEW this year, a ballista and catapult!

Kids' Games – A NEW kid-friendly ballista and battering ram can be found along the games alley, together with the miniature trebuchets, Frog Jump, Jacob's Ladder, Jail and Stockade. Don't miss the NEW photo opportunity at the nearby Phantom Knight!
